Making Cars Safely – IOSH presentation by Jaguar Land Rover and NQA

Jaguar Land Rover and NQA are teaming up at IOSH to speak about Jaguar Land Rover's journey to OHSAS 18001 certification. This event will take place in the Spotlight Theatre at EXCEL at 2pm on Tuesday 15th and Wednesday 16th March.

Presented by Andrew Burns Warren, NQA's H&S Advisor, Jonathan Wilson, NQA's H&S Sector Manager and Satnam Sohal, Safety Manager at Jaguar Land Rover, the 30 minute overview will cover:

- The implementation of a Safety Management System at Jaguar Land Rover
- Maintaining a Safety Management System
- Pros and cons of assessment
- Benefits of registration

Whilst visiting IOSH, visit NQA's stand (B5) to discuss any certification or training requirements you have related to OHSAS 18001. NQA can help enable your organisation to:

- Reduce costs - by decreasing incident related down-time.
- Save time and costs - by streamlining your procedures as part of an integrated management system.
- Improve productivity - by identifying hazards and implementing controls.
- Win more business - by proving your creditability to new and existing customers.
